Introduction

Shri Gnanambica Degree College (Autonomous), Madanapalle, successfully organized Seminar Excellence – 2026, a presentation competition designed for first-year students across all departments. The event aimed to promote academic engagement, enhance presentation skills, and build confidence among students by providing them a structured platform to express their ideas. It encouraged students to explore subjects from their Semester 1 and Semester 2 curriculum and present them effectively before an audience.

Event Overview

The event was conducted on 22nd and 23rd April 2026 at the Sri Srinivasa Seminar Hall. (The event was postponed by one day from its initially scheduled date.) A total of 56 students actively participated in the seminar competition, representing various departments. The sessions were also streamed live through YouTube, extending the reach of the event beyond the physical venue and enabling wider academic interaction.

Judging Process

The participants were evaluated based on multiple parameters that ensured a comprehensive assessment of their performance. Dear Team, Greetings.

The Judges for the event are: Mrs. Anusha (Dept of English), Mrs. Sulthana (dept of Management), Mrs. Kavitha (Dept of Computers), and Mrs. K.S. Ramya (Dept of Biotechnology).

Mr. Raghavendra is invited as the Chief Judge for the Event.

Further I would request Mr. Nikhilesh to take responsibility for photographing the event.

As part of the upcoming seminar activity, I understand that students have already been shortlisted for presentations. I would like to provide a few guidelines to ensure the effectiveness and relevance of this initiative.

Students are expected to prepare and present topics from their 1st and 2nd semester syllabus, ensuring a clear understanding of fundamental concepts. In addition, they are encouraged to include practically useful and implementable aspects in their presentations. Topics related to Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS) and Human Values may be integrated wherever appropriate.

We strongly prefer practical and experiential approaches over purely theoretical explanations. Students may include demonstrations, real-life applications, case examples, or simple activities that reflect applied learning.

The objective is to make presentations more meaningful, engaging, and beneficial from both academic and real-world perspectives.

Kindly guide the students accordingly during their preparation.

The student list is attached. Kindly update your department's students' hall ticket numbers and their presentation topics via email before 3:30 PM on April 11th.

Thank you for your support and cooperation.

Regards,

Rajani Kanth M.S.
